

Art

Topic	Key Concepts	Related Concepts	Theme	ATL skills	Lines of Inquiry	Summative Assessments	Assessment Objectives	Taking Action
How We Express Ourselves - Artists use simple tools to creatively express ideas in art.	Form Connection	Technique Value	How We Express Ourselves	Self - Management Skills; Creative thinking skills	How do artists create complex compositions using form and value How to draw with accuracy How can value and line create expression in an artwork	Drawing portfolio	Students will reflect on factors that influence personal reactions to artwork (responding) Students will adjust and refine their creative process in response to creative criticism (creating)	Students can present their drawings in an exhibition
How the World Works - The world around us is composed of matter which can go through changes.	Form Change Connection	Technique Aesthetics	How the World Works	Creative Thinking Communication	The changes of materials during process	Clay project	Students will develop an awareness of their personal preferences (creating) Students will reflect throughout the creative process to challenge their thinking and enact new and unusual possibilities (responding)	Students can use their hand made clay object as a working vessel to create awareness of form and function.
People can create and manipulate messages to target a specific audience.	Perspective Form Causation	Aesthetics Audience	How We Express Ourselves	Creative Thinking Communication	Forms of persuasive communication How artists manipulate style elements in graffiti art How street art impacts an audience	Graffiti Throw Up task	Students will reflect throughout the creative process to enact new and unusual possibilities (responding) Students will utilize a broad range of ways to make meaning (creating) Students will develop an awareness of their personal preferences (creating)	Students can make a graffiti inspired composition to display at home.
How We Express Ourselves - Art is a visual language through which people express ideas, feelings and emotions	Form Perspective Change	Genre Visual Culture	How We Express Ourselves	Creative Thinking Communication	How do artists communicate in a non objective style What is abstract art	Abstract Painting task	Students will reflect throughout the creative process to enact new and unusual possibilities (responding) Students will explain the cultural and historical perspectives of an artwork (responding) Students will utilize a broad range of ways to make meaning (creating) Students will develop an awareness of their personal preferences (creating)	Students can visit a local gallery or museum to view and explain their interpretation of an abstract piece of art.

EXHIBITION	All Concepts	Individual Choice	Where We Are in Place and Time	All Atributes	Individual lines of inquiry	Collaborative exhibition task	Students understand the role and relevance of visual arts in society (responding) Students will select, research and develop an idea or theme for an artwork (creating) Students will identify factors to be considered when displaying an artwork (creating)	Students can create a piece of art to promote awareness for a social issue.
Who We Are - Changes people experience in life affect their evolving sense of self	Form Change Connectionn	Representation Expression	Who We Are	Communication Self Management	How relationships contribute to our sense of self Mindfulness Self-Expression	Mindfulness mixed media project	Students will utilize a broad range of ways to make meaning (creating) Students will develop an awareness of their personal preferences (creating)	Students can create a mindful mandalxa drawing at home.

